1-15 Oct: The Family Advocacy Program will partner with Child and Youth Services to paint SGT Ted E. Bear with the children's handprints in support of Domestic Violence Awareness Month. For additional information, please call (334) 255-3898

1-3 October: The Family Advocacy Program (FAP) will conduct domestic violence educational training through the "Breaking the Silence About Domestic Violence" organization. The speakers, Kirsten Faith Paruginog and Terry Josiah Sharpe, will be sharing their stories as victim of domestic violence and as the abuser, respectively.

This is a presentation that will leave the audience with an important understanding that domestic violence can happen to anyone and how it can be effectively handled by loved ones and the community at large. Family Advocacy Program (FAP) Victim Advocates will be available at each performance.

The First responders will receive training on Monday, 1 October 2018 at the Commons (Bldg 8950) at 0800 - 1200. The presentations for troop training and local community participants will take place on Tuesday, 2 October 2018 at the Post Theater (0900-1100), (1300-1500), and (1730-1930) and Wednesday, 3 October 2018 at the Post Theater (0900-1100) and (1300-1500).

18 Oct: Baby Sign Language: 1000-1100: Building 5700, Room 371F: Babies are happiest when they can communicate with the people who love them the most - their families. Did you know that babies can actually understand spoken language before they are able to physically speak? Signing is a tool that can be the key into your baby's thought and the springboard for future language development. The New Parent Support Program and Parent to Parent are inviting all Active Duty, Retired, DoD Employees and their Family Members to a parent and child interactive Baby Sign Language Class. This class teaches expectant parents and those with young children how to communicate with their child and avoid frustrations associated with language development. Pre-registration is required by the Friday before class starts each month. Limited to the first 10 registrants each session. EFMP friendly. Open to authorized patrons. For registration, childcare and more information call ACS New Parent Support Program at (334)2559647/3359/9805
