EFMP RESPITE CARE: ESSENTIAL RELIEF FOR FAMILIES

STRENGTHENING FAMILY RESILIENCE AND SUPPORTING SOLDIER READINESS.

What is Respite Care?

Respite care offers a temporary, essential break for primary caregivers who support a loved one with medical needs requiring frequent, hands-on care.

Eligibility & Approval

- Prerequisite: Your family must be enrolled in the Exceptional Family Member Program (EFMP).
- Decision Maker: Eligibility is determined solely by the Office of the Surgeon General (OTSG).
- The Process: OTSG conducts a medical review of the information already documented in your E-EFMP records. Each packet is reviewed individually based on available documentation.

Simplified Renewals!

Once approved, families no longer have to reapply for respite care every year!
Your respite care services will remain active until your current EFMP enrollment expires.

To maintain eligibility and keep your overall EFMP active, you must:

- Update your enrollment anytime your family member has a change in care needs.
- Add new evaluations, diagnoses, or medical documentation as soon as they are available.
- Submit all updates through the Enterprise website: efmp.army.mil

We Are Here to Help

Your Army Community Service (ACS) team is ready to guide you through the process! While ACS cannot influence or change OTSG's eligibility decisions, our System Navigators will help you explore alternative community resources if you do not qualify for respite care—ensuring you never navigate the system alone.

Contact Us Today to Start the Process & For Personalized Guidance:

- ACS EFMP Coordinator: (334) 255-9277
- Camp Bull Simons (Eglin/Pensacola): (850) 885-7915

Examples of Qualifying Needs:

Mobility-related challenges, Feeding tube dependence, Certain seizure disorders, or Other diagnoses requiring ongoing caregiver involvement
